

Missions Sunday

The Missions Committee of Friends Church of North Carolina contributes to many ministries, including missionaries, Friends' Meetings and centers in underprivileged areas, and Friends United Meeting ministries. What we can do depends on you! You can:

- Give financial support.
- Go on a mission trip for VBS, work group, etc.
- Grow your knowledge with newsletters and pray for missionaries and ministries.
- Get the word out to other Friends.

Missionaries

- Jonathan Spainhour of Youth with a Mission, who teaches Bible teachers
- Meg Williams of Youth for Christ, who starts Bible clubs in N.C. public schools
- Bob and Hope Carter, medical and spiritual ministry in Kenya
- Will, English teacher who leads Bible studies in China
- Oscar Mballi, pastor in Belize

Ministries primarily supported by N.C. Friends

- Jamaica partnership with Friends meetings in Jamaica
- Matamoros meeting with pastor Hilda Martinez in Mexico
- MOWA Choctaw Friends Center in Alabama

Ministries through FUM

Belize boys school, Friends Theological College, Lugulu Hospital, and ministries in Samburu, Turkana and other parts of Kenya.

Here is the NEED you can help address:

We would like to add support to other ministries, like Cuban Friends, and grow the ones we have.

But instead, we've had to cut support to current ministries because of low giving the past few years.

We are in desperate need of your help!!

Missions Sunday

The special collection today goes to support these ministries, especially those whose funding has been cut in the 2019 budget. As you feel led you can also send checks to FCNC, with Missions on the memo line, mail to the NCYM, Inc. office at 600 E. Springfield Rd., High Point, NC 27263.

Maybe you can't go; but you can help send others!!
